

Engaging Faculty in Sustainability

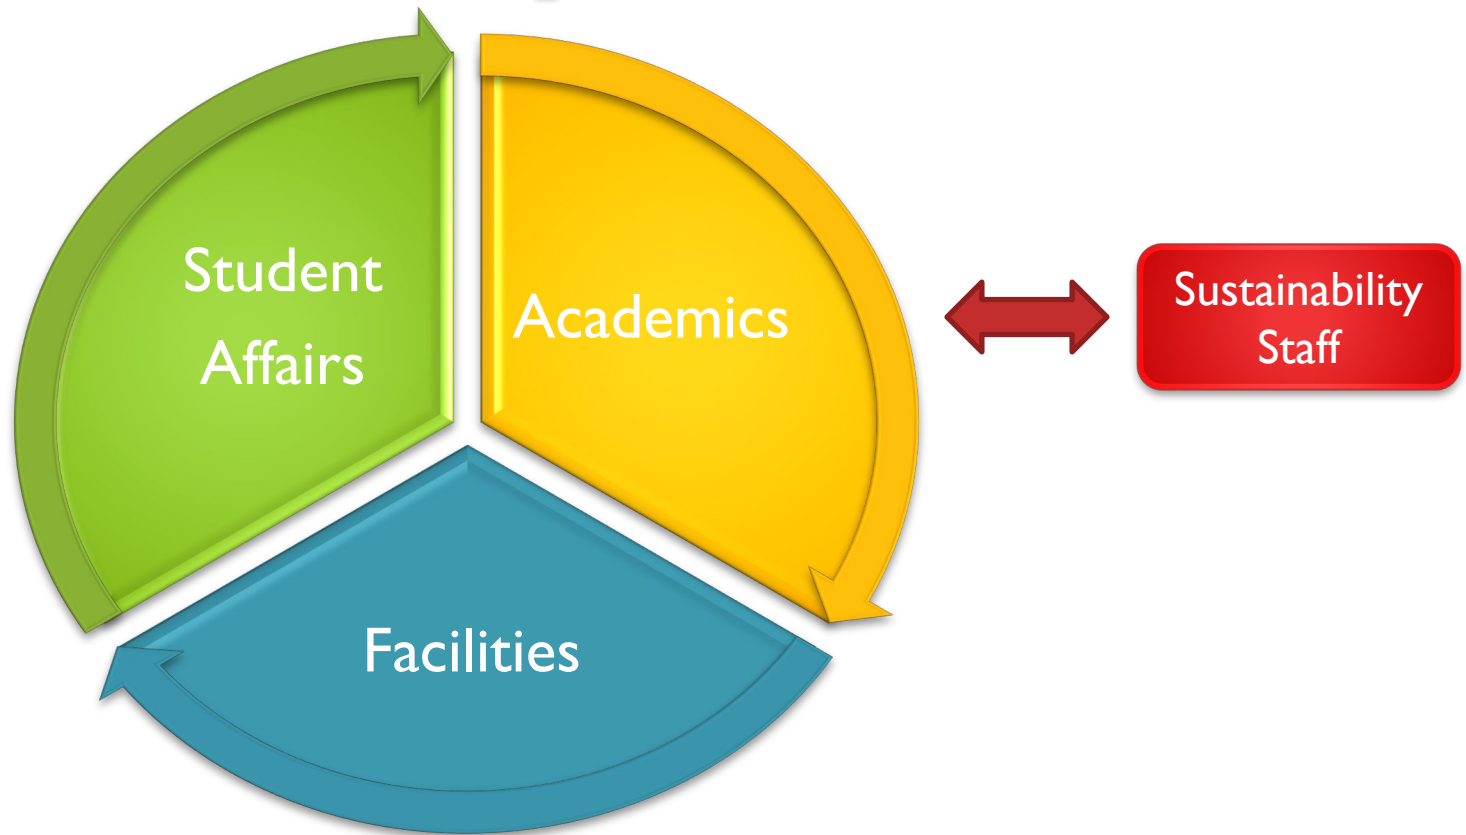

Morgan B. Johnston, Associate Director of Sustainability at University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Kevin Adkins, Sustainability Officer at Southern Illinois
University Edwardsville

Connie Frey Spurlock, Faculty Sustainability Fellow at Southern Illinois University Edwardsville

Sustainable Campus ?

Overview

- Description of each program;
- Process for establishing a fellowship;
- Methods for connecting faculty and facilities;
- Overview of projects carried out by faculty fellows

Connecting Facilities with Faculty

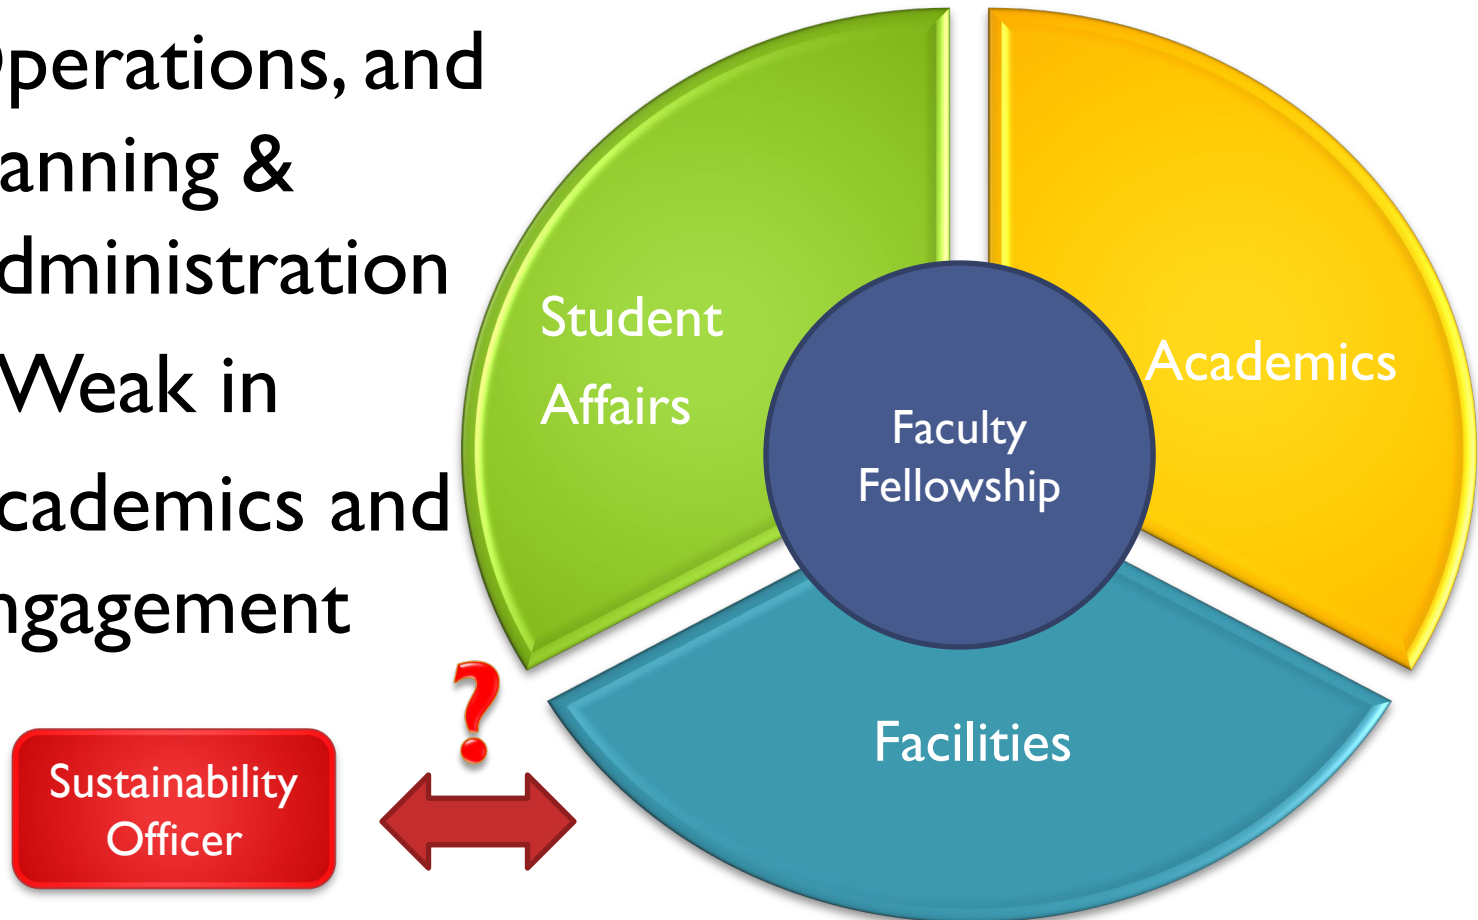

- High-profile recognition and funding system
- UI Faculty Fellows Program
 - Methodology
 - Results
 - Next steps

Dashboard - Green Infrastructure

STARS as a Driver for Innovation

- Strong in Operations, and Planning & Administration
- Weak in Academics and Engagement

Influencing Academic Curriculum

- UI Project Based Learning
- faculty and staff responsibilities
- student engagement during class
- impact on academic program structure

Influencing Academic Curriculum at SIUE

- Curriculum Workshops
 - Brown Bag Series
 - Mississippi Project
- Outreach
 - Presentations across campus

SIUE Faculty Sustainability Fellowship

- Objectives:
 - increase awareness of sustainability among faculty
 - foster the inclusion of sustainability into curriculum
 - encourage scholarly activity in sustainability
- Methodology
- Results
- Next steps

Wrap Up

- Options for connecting facilities and researchers through a high-profile recognition and funding system
- STARS as a driver for institutional innovation
- Methods for Influencing academic curriculum
- Questions?