Updates

1. Levenick Teaching Fellows Program (Luis Rodriguez)
 - Brief history: Donor funds were given for faculty to integrate sustainability modules into their existing coursework. The program ran for approximately 5-6 years. It was paused in recent years and the iCAP Education team is now looking to bring this program back with minor adjustments to the structure (such as incorporating data and additional incentives).
2. Green Career Forum
 - Continuing to look for student input- In the process of doing outreach to various student groups of interest
 - Anticipating February 18th and 19th, career panel the night of the 18th and the career forum following on the 19th
 - Requires a CFOB, looking into logistics of this
3. Sustainability Literacy Assessment
 - Reviewed data/results, discussed what the team thought stood out in the findings.

4. Sustainability Course List

- Working on an automated list that captures courses that courses with sustainability in their description and compiles it into a database
