Updates

1. Undergraduate Levenick Scholars Program
 - Luis not present; more updates to come at the next meeting
 - Large shift in the direction of the program being developed, hoping to finalize and open applications beginning in March
2. Green Career Forum Update
 - Green Career Forum cancelled, Green Career Panel will still be happening independently
 - Date of the Green Career Panel has been moved to February 23rd
3. Sustainability Literacy Assessment
 - Could use the Chancellor signing the new iCAP as leverage to indicate that campus values sustainability and further integrate it into student orientation
 - Changes for upcoming semester: planning on shortening the quiz and making the quiz more appealing to the eye
 - Providing directors and instructors with sustainability resources to spread the info to students, additionally could collaborate with the EcoReps program
4. Sustainability in Study Abroad
 - A pause in sustainability initiatives for the year due to new team members being onboarded

- It has been observed that different colleges have different operating priorities, some value sustainability more than others
- Remain in continued discussion with CAB with the International Education Sustainability Group
