Energy Conservation Incentive Program Winners to Be Announced on Campus Sustainability Day

CHAMPAIGN, IL (October 22) – Eight facilities on the Urbana campus will win funding for facility improvements as recipients of the 2014 Energy Conservation Incentive Program (ECIP) awards on Wednesday, October 22 at 3:00 p.m. in Illini Union 314B as a part of the Illinois Climate Action Plan (iCAP) Forum.

Last year, the ECIP awarded more than $250K in pre-approved energy conservation projects to winning facilities including:

- Undergraduate Library – Entrance Doors
- Law Building – New Drinking Fountains
- Doris Christopher Kelly Hall – Exterior Bike Rack
- Spurlock Museum – LED Lighting

This year, the ECIP is made up of seven first-time winners and the first-ever repeat award recipient. Started in 2013, the ECIP encourages energy conservation through the behavioral and structural changes of academic units and cooperation of building occupants.
