U of I: Don't leave your bikes behind

by WCCU/WICS Staff
Thursday, June 30th 2022

Smart commute week kicks off amid record high gas prices. (UpNorthLive)

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (WCCU/WICS) — The University of Illinois Urbana Champaign is dealing with an abandoned bicycle problem.

Each summer the staff with the University of Illinois Facilities & Services and the parking department identify and collect unwanted bicycles on campus.

Any bike left on university property gets an orange sticker that reads, "Remove this tag by

...e removed."

If the bicycle is still there on Tuesday, July 5, it will be impounded.

If your bike has been removed and you'd like it back, email bike@illinois.edu with your bicycle information.

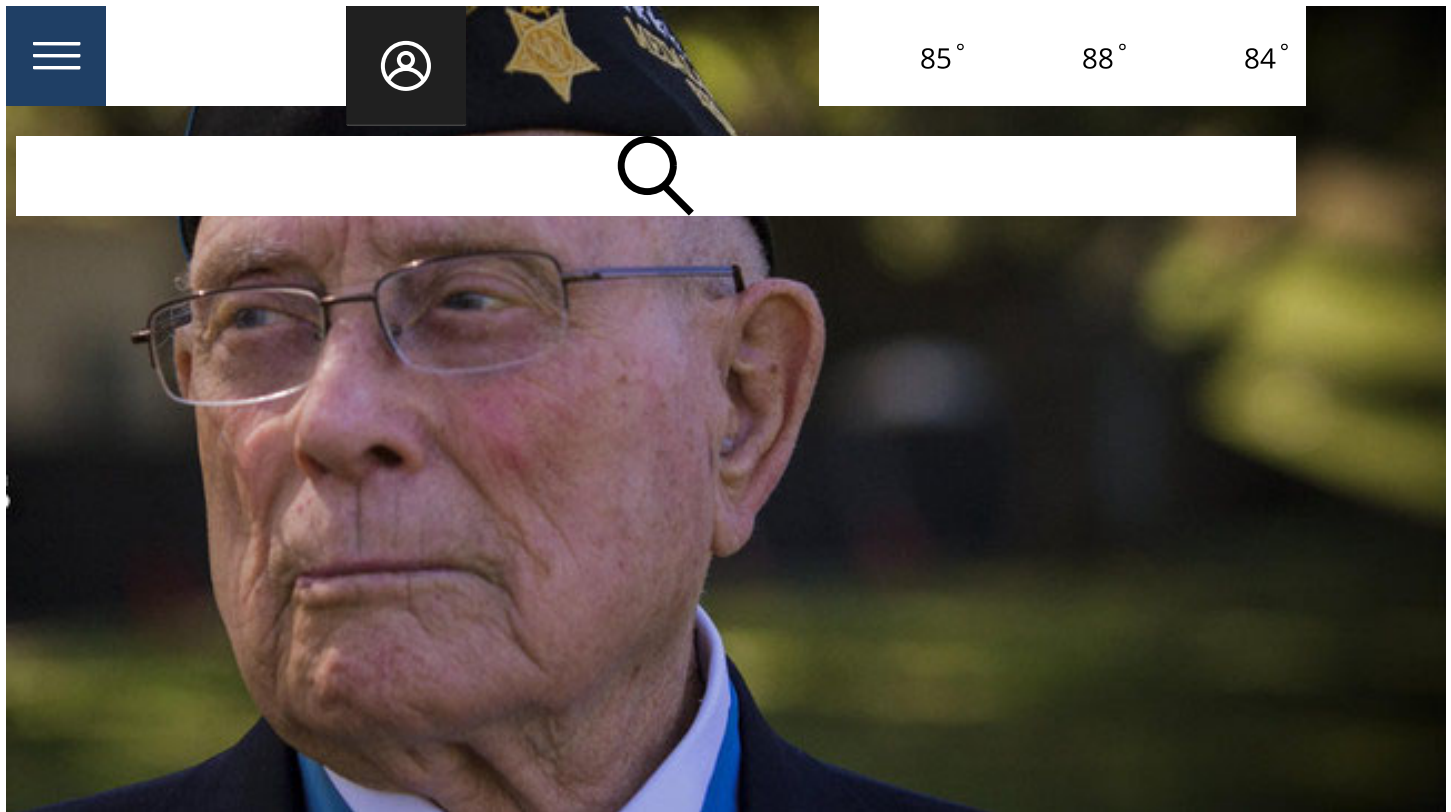

If you have an old bicycle you'd like to donate, you can drop it off at the Campus Bike Center (51 Gregory Drive, Champaign) or the Bike Project of Urbana (202 S. Broadway Avenue, Room 24).

After serving in World War II, Hershel Woodrow "Woody" Williams went on to become a Veteran Service Representative at VA—serving his fellow Veterans for 33 years before retiring.

The U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs says that after he retired he continued to advocate for veterans by leading a foundation that serves Gold Star Families across America.
