    The Plastics Recycling Station at SCD project is right on track thanks to the support of the Student Sustainability Committee grant funds and continued input from the students in the Maker Network RSO. The recycling system has been purchased, set up, and tested in the SCD garage using plastic waste collected in our 3D printing lab. Below is an overview of the project status from the Fall 2024 semester:

10. Describe, in detail, the project's challenges/obstacles since your last semester progress report (or since the project commenced if you have not yet submitted a semester progress report)? *

    We have not encountered any challenges yet, though we expect to learn a lot as we do our initial testing of the equipment and filament quality.

11. Describe, in detail, the project's successes since your last semester progress report (or since the project commenced if you have not yet submitted a semester progress report)? *

    Creating the first spool of recycled 3D printed filament was a milestone towards making this a sustainable resource for campus. This was achieved once the filabot system was received, set up, tested, and run for the first time. We have also identified and appointed student workers who will move this project forward in Spring.
