Project Description:

The Idea Garden currently lacks access to electricity, making garden maintenance a challenge. Since the Idea Garden's mission statement is "helping others learn to grow," the volunteer-led team only wants sustainable infrastructure added to its garden. To add utilities to the site in an environmentally-friendly manner, this funding will allow University of Illinois Extension to install solar panels, giving electricity to the area. Secondly, adding solar power to the Idea Garden will bring awareness to renewable energy via its 1,000+ seasonal visitors, which include students.

This proposal directly funds:

1. Labor costs
2. Solar panels
